

I'm Not Through Loving You Yet

Holly Dunn

You've got that lookin' around look in your eye
You've got a restless ache you want to satisfy
But while you're thinkin' about who you could love
You'd better keep in mind just what you're giving up

Stop acting like you've already left, I'm not through loving you yet
Don't you turn your back don't you act like that Don't do anything you'd regret
I'm telling you boy
If you're thinking free think differently
And never forget I'm not through loving you yet

Just 'cause there's someone out there you haven't tried
Don't mean that what you want is what you're gonna find
I've always taken you where you want to be
So don't go somewhere else for what you've got with me

I'll show you I meant it when I said I'm not through loving you yet
Don't you turn your back, don't you act like that...
I'll show you I meant it when I said I'm not through loving you yet
Don't you turn your back, don't you act like that...
