

Sweet September

House of Lords

When I close my eyes you're all around
And I'm lost in time but what can I do
It's true that all I see is you
I've got to be wrong
But I can't, I can't stop dreaming

When I close my eyes I feel your touch
I'm lost in your arms forever
You're by my side I'm in a rush
I'm back in the sweet september

You're mine again
It never ends
It never ends

When I lay me down to fall asleep
I can hear the sound of silent goodbyes
As we tried and the leaves fall from the sky
Like you and I
But I, I keep on living

When I close my eyes I feel your touch
I'm lost in your arms forever
You're by my side I'm in a rush
I'm back in the sweet september

You're mine again
It never ends
It's only you would do, yeah
And what I wouldn't do
To get close to you

Yeah, I'd walk through fire
And I'd break down walls
For your hearts desire
And I'd sell my soul
And I'd risk everything
And I'd take any time left
For just one more moment with you

When I close my eyes I feel your touch
I'm lost in your arms forever
You're by my side I'm in a rush
I'm back in the sweet september

You're mine again
It never ends
And I can still pretend
