

To our forefathers with love!

Thanks for tearing the world apart
Primitive minds are left terrified
Strife, confinement, and the pursuit of lucidness
Whoa...

This is philosophy of the history of our nations being Fabricated, yet, it's only what the public sees
There is significance in every move that's made

We live inside a living
Breathing juggernaut
His eye sees all

If we are so free
Then why are our minds not meant to be
Don't believe thy majesty
They'll eat you alive

He who controls the war
Controls our history
Reasons of this, they are shrouded in mystery
Evidence of schematics are hidden within the media
Feeding off of greed, we are the prey of the beast

We the weak, we man the front lines
Swallow lead, make sure the beast is fed
We have resided within the comforts of ignorance
But, this time through it isn't bliss, whoa...

We live inside a living
Breathing juggernaut
His eye sees all

If we are so free
Then why are our minds not meant to be
Don't believe thy majesty
They'll eat you alive

I will not be
Marked, considered disposable
We live like batteries
Giving life to another yet simply born to die

If we are so free
Then why are our minds not meant to be
Don't believe thy majesty
They'll eat you alive

If we are so free
Then why are our minds not meant to be
Don't believe thy majesty
They'll eat you alive
