

Here my heart; my heartbeat is your time Feel this trembling sound, take care don't let it plunge you in to misery

Dreadful dreams will be your home divine
In your narrow mind, a torturous path will lead you to your ene my

Mindless lives will greet you from afar Walls that bind their minds will be for you the boarder to your emptiness

Breath this life like it will breath in you.
Come out of your shell, believe in me- your eyes will see just endlessness.

Take this forces if you like Leave your memories here, in my forgotten soul Drag your burdens to the dark Let them be beside mine- in obscurity
