

Theatre

Icon for Hire

My life is a musical
I know how to put on a pretty pathetic show
I hide backstage
Keep the curtains closed
'Cause I'm scared, I'm scared

I'm getting pretty good at feeding them the lines they like
But I don't recognize the girl that I face each night
I can compromise till I'm convinced
It's right

What happened to the girl who could overlook the world?
She never gave a second thought to what the other people thought
What happened to the dream of rejecting the routine?
'Cause they never worked for me

I'm gonna burn this theatre down and pray to God for the strength to help me
face the crowd
I wanna live like I lost the script and scream every line
Like "this is it!"

They say all the world's a stage
Rewriting your identity is all the rage,
Well next act please, I'd like a change
I don't really like pretending
This way

What happened to the girl who could overlook the world?
She never gave a second thought to what the other people thought
What happened to the dream of rejecting the routine?
'Cause they never worked for me

I'm gonna burn this theatre down and pray to God for the strength to help me
face the crowd
I wanna live like I lost the script and scream every line
Like "this is it!"

I'm gonna burn this theatre down and pray to God for the strength to help me
face the crowd
I wanna live like I lost the script and scream every line
Like "this is it!"

And the sad thing is we're all in on the action
We're all holding our breath, waiting for a reaction
You play your part
I'll be playing with matches
And if you'd like a show, you can follow the ashes

I'm gonna burn this theatre down and pray to God for the strength to help me

Face the crowd, I wanna live like I lost the script and scream every line
Like "this is it!"

I'm gonna burn this theatre down and pray to God for the strength to help me

Face the crowd, I wanna live like I lost the script and scream every line
Like...

"This is it!"
