

Enter Tragedy

In Flames

Twisting turn
Falling off the edge again need some space
need disgrace
i'm confused but i'm engaged

I need for you to pick me up when i fall down
There's so much more we can go for
but i can't control my selfish ways

Enter tragedy
Slash my soul
Why is it part of the plan?
do you question me?
i question you!

who's that man in front of me im not voted i can't see

there's so much more we can go for
but i can't control my selfish ways

Enter tragedy
Slash my soul
Why is it part of the plan?
do you question me?
i question you?

they said her apathy brings me to life i know it's strange and it's draining me i'm tired
i'm fed up
of this life

i'm tired
i'm fed up
of this life

Enter tragedy
Slash my soul

Why is it part of the plan
do you question me?
i question you!
i question you!
