

Never Stop

Indigo Girls

You say she's a very good friend circumstances I should understand but like recurring tide she comes on to you and looks as though she's looking for a man honey don't make yourself so available my pride's in my pocket but I can be reasonable still all in all I foresee my own fall but I've climbed too far to drop so stop

I know it's your ego keeps the smile on your face because you know you got your options open she's a beguiling snake and she'll keep what she takes but when she leaves you I'll be the one coping honey don't make yourself so available
my pride's in my pocket but I can be reasonable still through and through I can see clean through you I know you like to be the one on top but stop

You will miss my conversation when you're talking to yourself you'll be thumbing for advice through the pages of the novels on your shelf honey don't you see our love together's the very best bet put your focus on me and I'll forgive and forget throw away your hidden ace you clever man and take my hand

You needn't play the part of your image this is not a one act play we're living and as long as I'm here the situation is clear it'll be 50/50 take and giving honey don't you see a lifetime's not much to ask take off your costume and remove your mask if yes is what you will say we're gonna start from today we're gonna take it to the very top and never stop
