

Open My Eyes

Inhabited

And I'm all mixed up again
Which way should I go
So many voices in my head
I need You, oh I need You
I said I'm all mixed up again
Where should I go
So many voices in my head
I need You, oh I need You
I'm not gonna walk away
You've got to take my hand today

Would You open my eyes
Will you take me by the hand
When I'm runnin' through the storm
I will trust in You
Would You open my eyes
Will You take me by the hand
When I'm running through the storm
I will trust in You

I run to catch my breath
Yeah I fight to lose my step
And I scream to still the storm
Look away to catch You stare
I'm not gonna walk away
You've got to take my hand today

Confusion is all over me
And I am blind, I can't see
I'm letting go, I'm letting go.
Would you take control of me

Open my eyes
Will you take me by the hand
When I'm runnin' through the storm
I will trust in You
'Cause I'm running back to You
And I'm running back to You
And I'm running back to You
Would You lead me
Would You lead me
