

Mustang Burn

Jack Ingram

I don't give a damn that your car's on fire
It ain't none of my concern
And I don't really care that you think I'm a liar
Man I know it's just 'cause you're getting burned

That ain't none of my concern
'Cause I'm watching your Mustang burn

I know what you're thinking, man your heart is sinking
Your car's going up in flames
And it's driving you crazy just thinking, hey maybe
Someone like me is to blame

That ain't none of my concern
'Cause I'm watching your Mustang burn
No, it ain't none of my concern
'Cause I'm watching your Mustang burn

She was a vision the perfect dimensions
Of what you thought true love would be
And she looked so good while you were under her hood
While your girlfriend was smiling at me

What did you expect me to do? I ain't got no ties to you
And it ain't none of my concern
'Cause I'm watching your Mustang burn
I said, it ain't none of my concern
'Cause I'm watching your Mustang burn
