

Best Man

Jagged Edge

Tell me whats the reason that a mans own woman could be so cold and tell me how the two of you could be doing what you doing right in my home we were supposed to get married, it's kinda scary that we just almost did I hope that you're happy, cause you got each other I don't want no part of your love

You were my best man she meant everything to me she was my girlfriend closer than two could ever be you were my best man, best man, yeah yeah she was my girlfriend, girlfriend, yeah yeah supposed to be my best friend

Should've known when I asked a question you couldn't even look me in my eyes no more then you start to st-st-stutter talking about you know better ?? tell me how could you, you forget about the situation we been through tell me why oh why why did you cheat on me, baby tell me why

Think about the time (thinkin bout all the time we shared) together you and I (I remember when you were my best friend) whats the reason why (whats the reason why why why)
