

Building A Charge

James

Dreaming a dream
Strangers at night
Fingers and tongues
Building a charge
Leading you on
Skin upon skin
Soft and then hard
Building a charge
Making me shake
Making me swoon
Making you shy
Kissing this womb
Taking the senses much deeper than meaning
This magic is drawing you in
Shaking together this moment will break you
Will take you right out of your skin
Fingers outside
Slipping them in
Drifting those lips
Flapping those ties
Breaking forever the shell that contains you
Shaking together releasing the stranger in skin
Breaking for moments the shell that contains you
Shaking together releasing the stranger in skin
Breaking for moments the shell that contains you
Shaking together releasing the stranger in skin
Breaking for moments the shell that contains you
Shaking together releasing the fever in skin
Breaking for moments the shell that contains you
Shaking together releasing the fever in skin
Breaking for moments the shell that contains you
Shaking together releasing the fever in skin
