I'm Leaving It Up To You

Jan Howard

I'm leavin' it all up to you you decide what you gonna do Now do you want my love or are we through That's why I'm leavin' it up...

I've got my heart in my hand but there's so much that I don't u nderstand

And baby I don't know what I've done wrong You know I worship the ground you walked on That's why I'm leavin' it up...
