

If This Is The End

Jeff Scott Soto

Something is saying things ain't been right
I can tell in your smile
You're probably thinking I can't see the signs, but you're wrong
What we been missing is more than a touch
But the words seem so clear
Through the illusions that love will survive
These are words I hope you'll hear

If this is the end then why don't I wanna go
My feeling defends answers we ought 2 know
If this is the end must the story close this way
Why can't we pretend if this is the end?

Most say it's familiar, good things don't last
But I never 4see
The senseless conclusion that's coming 2 play in our lives
Although it's apparent & perfectly clear
We both know what's in store
There's just no disguising the pain & the fear are we worth fighting for?

If this is the end then why don't I wanna go
My feeling defends answers we ought 2 know
If this is the end must the story close this way
Why can't we pretend if this is the end?

I don't know the solution, I don't know that answer is 2 work it out
But we won't know the meaning if we fall past the ways of our doubt

If this is the end then why don't I wanna go
My feeling defends answers we ought 2 know
If this is the end must the story close this way
Why can't we pretend if this is the end?
