

Shining In The Moonlight

Jefferson Starship

I can feel the heat rising up inside of me
I can still remember how one touch baby feel
And thinking of that night
The light of the moon
The feeling never fades
It ended too soon

Standing in a broken dream
Calling on your fantasies
Looking for the magic land
In here eyes

Shining in the moonlight
Looking for love
Shining in the moonlight
Looking for you
Shining in the moonlight

But I'm still alone
A victim of that night
For eternity
Drifting like a summer wind
A memory inside of me
Standing in the broken dream
Calling on your fantasies
Looking for a magic land
Tryin to find it in her eyes

Whoaaohh
Shining in the moonlight
Looking for love
Shining in the moonlight
Hungry for you
Shining in the moonlight
Shining in the moonlight
Shining in the moonlight
Shining in the moonlight
Shining in the moonlight
