

Come Give Me Your Hand

Jennifer Rush

The look in your eyes brings me to life
With all of your wonder I want to be yours
You're the song in the night, I'm always singing
When there's only silence
Holding me tight through the night

Come give me your hand
Then you'll understand me
Everyday is a gift
Something we shouldn't miss
There is no need to run away
If you feel that this is for real
'Cause when it's warm and straight from the heart
It's time to start

You've had your share oooh of love and despair
I see it in your eyes they echo through your mind
You try to decide if we will survive
Or be torn apart
By the breaking of two aching hearts

Come give me your hand
Then you'll understand me
Everyday is a gift
Something we shouldn't miss
There is no need to run away
If you feel that this is for real
'Cause when it's warm and straight from the heart
