

It's Over

Jet Black Stare

And when you wake up on your own
You know I'll feel better
And when you sit there all alone
It's over

Last call, I'm gone
Did you think you could lie forever
I've known for so long
Still you try to play the pretender

You always acted so surprised
(You knew it, you knew it)
And now I see through your disguise
(See through it)

And when you wake up on your own
You know I'll feel better
And now you sit there all alone
You know, you know that it's over

His clothes, your floor
Did you think you could be so clever
Your lies, no more
Did you think you could do much better

You always acted so surprised
(You knew it, you knew it)
And now I see through your disguise
(See through it)

And when you wake up on your own
You know I'll feel better
And now you sit there all alone
You know, you know that it's over

You lied to me and tried to fit inside the arms of another
Don't cry to me cuz when it hits
You know, you know that it's over

You always acted so surprised
(You knew it, you knew it)
And now I see through your disguise
(See through it)

And when you wake up on your own
You know I'll feel better
And now you sit there all alone
You know, you know that it's over

You lied to me and tried to fit inside the arms of another
Don't cry to me cuz when it hits
You know, you know that it's over

It's over
