

Create In Me

JJ Heller

I am running ragged
My mind is full of words
That I'm too scared to say
I am running ragged
But you still love me this way

I don't want to be rescued
Oh I want to be redeemed
Won't you break me
And remake me
Create in me again
Create in me again

My heart is a cathedral
These halls would echo
In the darkness for so long
My heart is a cathedral
Come and fill it with song

I don't want to be rescued
Oh I want to be redeemed
Won't you break me
And remake me
Create in me again
Create in me again

Build something beautiful
Don't leave until you do
I'm tired of the old routine
Make me new

I don't want to be rescued
Oh I want to be redeemed
Won't you break me
And remake me
Create in me again
Create in me again
