

December

Jonathan Clay

I've been climbing mountains
I've been climbing mountains for awhile
And I've been swimming oceans
I've been swimming oceans for awhile

I'm just trying to get around
I'm trying to say that I have finally found my way
And I guess I'm doing fine
But I think it's time I draw the line today
Today

And I've been chasing daylight
I've been chasing daylight for awhile
For awhile
And I've been trying reason
I've been searching for a reason for awhile

I'm just trying to get around
I'm trying to say that I have finally found my way
And I guess I'm doing fine
But I think it's time I draw the line today
Today

[Instrumental Solo]

I'm in love with a dreamer
Been in love with a dreamer for awhile
For awhile
Everything is sweeter
Everything's been sweeter for awhile

I'm just trying to get around
I'm trying to say that I have finally found my way
And I guess I'm doing fine
But I think it's time I draw the line today
Today, today, oh today

I'm just trying to get around
I'm trying to say that I have finally found my way, found my way
y
Oh I guess I'm doing fine
But I think it's time I draw the line today
Today
