

Surrender

Justin Garner

Back, back, back baby
I didn't wanna be in love
Then I met you, you changed my mind
I was just trying to cut my... away, way!
I didn't wanna be like..
Didn't wanna be exclusive
Then you threw it all of me away!

Bridge:
Something that will never felt
All the girls say I'm the king of the bed
But I think I met my match!

Chorus:
I surrender
Can't fight against this love that I'm feeling
I surrender
I'm waving my white flag, yeah
Surrender!

What have you done
Everybody knows I know
One woman mend to more
Ever since you left me, girl
You knew I couldn't get over it
I promised I'll commit again!

Bridge:
Something that will never felt
All the girls say I'm the king of the bed
But I think I met my match!

Chorus:
I surrender
Can't fight against this love that I'm feeling
I surrender
I'm waving my white flag (waving my white flag)
Surrender!

Giving in Giving what?
I'm giving up all my love and my trust to you
To you, to you, to you!

Bridge:
Something that will never felt
All the girls say I'm the king of the bed
But I think I met my match!

Chorus:
I surrender
Can't fight against this love that I'm feeling
I surrender
I'm waving my white flag, yeah
Surrender!
