

Please Come On In

Karelia

You break my balls
Seekin' the truth wantin' to know
Sit down n' don't ask me any question by now
Just let me take you to a trip inside my brain
Please fasten seatbelt you'll know the story to the end
Twist of fate (so unfair)

Please come on in, pay no attention to the stains
Please let me show you through my brain,
It's a kind of Disneyland
Please take a look to my complete set of remains
Please watch your step, don't trip against
The creepy memories and blanks
It's funny place, do you enjoy the trip my friend?
Hang on: star attraction of the walk
Just let me take you to a trip inside my brain
Please fasten seatbelt you'll know the story to the end
Twist of fate (so unfair)

Here we are: the far end
If you feel like it my friend, open the door
Open the door my friend
(Come on sweetie, stay on my knee
... isn't that funny? [sniggering])

Did you enjoy the trip my friend?
(so unfair)
You know the story to the end
(so unfair)
