

Heart Attack

Kaskade

Come take aim
You want more
And I want the same
Give me a heart attack baby
Give me a heart attack

Don't stop the train
We give more
And we'll see the gain
Give me a heart attack baby
Give me a heart attack

They say loves a game
Our loves just begun another stage
There's no good reason to feel this way
If we try to work on a little give and take
I wouldn't tell you it's a waste of your time
The memories that help me make up my mind
Help me realize

I feel the pressure coming from every side
I'm doing things just to pass up the time
Just to get me by
Just to get me by
