

Towards I Roam

Keep of Kalessin

On my journey towards...
I gather the darkness and the cold silence...
surround me
Towards I Roam
creating a hole in the world Into the dark... forever on towards I roam Those enormous flashes of might as I open the night...
And wander, into the darkland over mountains in pain this is where I shall reign forever... at last Descending into the dark to where I go, dragons can't follow (me) as I'm dying in the realm of death In this darkness of the earth and night I summon even more of this enlightened might I... who has erected my being
I... the enlightened one dying in this land I... the immortal king of two lands cast my shadow in the darkness and reign at last... forever
