

Unholy Thoughts

Kele

I met the devil
Last night
At an after show
And then he led
Me in a cab

No more coke heads
No more cocaine
You're getting sloppy
And someone has, someone has to say

Here is bad (4x)

I hear their thoughts now
Before they speak
I feel their eyes now
Go through my soul accusing me
We're only partners, between the day
And these thoughts they multiply
And one by one become unholy

Here is bad (4x)

The mind is powerful
The mind is powerful
But it will not work, it will not work
In reverse
In reverse
In reverse
In reverse
