

Don't Look in My Eyes

Kenny Rogers

All my memories are safely packed
And my dreams are neatly folded away.
I've got nothing to show that I came very close
To a love that might have worked out okay.
All the tables and chairs, they stand empty and bare
And there isn't any sign you were here,
So just walk to the door and try not to get too near.

You might look in my eyes
And see all the pain, the sadness deep inside.
Don't look in my eyes, cause that's where I keep
The tears that I can't hide.
If you just go, it'll be alright
I know I'll get through the night
And I'll even smile as we say our good-byes,
Just don't look in my eyes.

All our photographs stored away
And our letters have been burned in the fire.
There is nothing left here that would make you believe
We had nights of tender love and desire.
If it seems to be grey, well I like it that way
There is nothing to remind me of you.
When you walk to the door just be sure whatever you do...

Don't look in my eyes
And see all the pain, the sadness deep inside.
Don't look in my eyes
Cause that's where I keep the tears that I can't hide.
If you just go, it'll be alright
I know I'll get through the night
And I'll even smile as we say our good-byes,
Just don't look in my eyes.

Don't look in my eyes
And see all the pain, the sadness deep inside.
Don't look in my eyes
Cause that's where I keep the tears that I can't hide.
If you just go, it'll be alright
I know, I'll make it through the night
And I'll even smile as we say our good-byes,
Just don't look in my eyes.

Just don't look in my eyes.
