

Deceive me, Release me, Unleash me
You've unleashed the wild within

Welcome to the madness
That dwells inside these eyes
Pushed unto the breaking point
You're running out of time

This innocent blood is on your hands
Deceive me
Come face to face with the final stand
Release me
It's the part of me you can't comprehend
Unleash me
You've unleashed the wild within

You who spoke defiance
You who spoke in jest
The last of all my tolerance has left this broken man

This innocent blood is on your hands
Deceive me
Come face to face with the final stand
Release me
It's the part of me you can't comprehend
Unleash me
You've unleashed the wild within

I remind you time and time again you've broken the restrains against your heart against the dark
Can you feel the pain of those you've betrayed
The promises unmade, broken hearts that fill with shame and you're to blame
Do they call your name
Theres nothing left to say, nothing left to say

This innocent blood is on your hands
Deceive me
Come face to face with the final stand
Release me
It's the part of me you can't comprehend
Unleash me
You've unleashed the wild within
