Oh can't you, can't you see
Hesitation is a thing of the past, the past, this will never la st
As long as we intend it
We are too young
We are too young
It took a long time to get here today
It took a long path to in your way
Ooh it's such a distance far from home
We will be pressed
I'm back from the dead
I'm back from the dead
Why don't you understand?
Our generation will be one of the last, the last, we'll become the past
As long as we are human
We're much too old
We're much too old
It took a long time to get here today
It took a long path to get in your way
Ooh it's such a far distance from home
We will be pressed
I'm back from the dead
I'm back from the dead
We will be pressed
I'm back from the dead
I'm back from the dead
Ooh... Ooh...
I said, I said, you're believin'
I said, I said, you're believin'
