

Mile In Silence

Laura Marano

If I say I'm sorry
You still don't want me back
If I say I'm stupid
Just to agree to the fact

Seems to me
You're in between
Not accepting any apology
I know I should just move on
But I need you to know that I know I was wrong

I just walked a mile in silence
Pass the point of falling apart
I know I am, why you crying
And I know I broke my own heart
It's all my fault
I'm paying for the pain I cause
Don't say that I don't know
'Cause baby, I know what I lost

If we ended this way
Won't forgive myself
You won't hear what I say
Just won't go too well

Seems to me
You're in between
Not accepting any apology
I know I should just move on
But I need you to know that I know I was wrong

I just walked a mile in silence
Pass the point of falling apart
I know I am, why you crying
And I know, I broke my own heart
It's all my fault
I'm paying for the pain I cause
Don't say that I don't know
'Cause baby, I know what I lost

I know, (I know)
I feel it every day
And I wake up in the morning
The sky is only gray
Where I go, (I go)
I think of you and me
All the happy memories
And the reason we are history

I just walk a mile in silence
Pass the point, of falling apart
I know I am, why you crying
And I know, I broke my own heart
It's all my fault
I'm paying for the pain I cause
Don't see that I don't know
'Cause baby, I know what I lost

I know what I lost [4x]
