

Are You Talking to Me?

Lazlo Bane

She's on the plane to San Diego
If we should all go down she'll tell us where to go
And when she smiles and says, "hello",
I just wanna know,

Chorus:

Are you talking to me?

Are you talking to me?

How 'bout a cocktail from the cart?

Her mouth is movin' but my head is in the stars

Did you enjoy the picture show?

Well I don't know,

Chorus
