Ten Thousand Light Years Away

Lemon Demon

Ten thousand plastic eyeballs Float through space Why don't you listen when you See my face

It's a grim prediction, but I
Told you so, and
Everyone says that there's no explanation
And nobody wanted to know

Something's terribly, terribly wrong with me Ten Thousand Light Years Away

Feelings of dread like a deathbed's Silent gloom I found a pile of red tape In my room

There's a lucid feeling of Insanity, and Everyone says that there's no explanation And it's simply the norm to agree

Just several weeks ago There was a status quo Ten Thousand Light Years Away

(blue times high crimes all's well like hell)

Something's terribly, terribly good And quite misunderstood Ten Thousand Light Years Away Ten Thousand Light Years Away
