So I see it, it's right there in front of me What's a matter, oh you cannot see Feeling like I did when you blindfolded me So I hear it, for a brief moment there I thought I knew All these things they were far, far from true But I guess you cannot hide from the truth.

So I see right through you
And I know what you've been up to
So I see right through you
And I know the things you do.

So I see it, it's right there in front of me.

Oh, I'm sorry,

You did not wanna see

Acting like I did when you betrayed me

So I hear it, they didn't have to scream it in my head

They just could have whispered it instead

Cause I am already over it now.

So I see right through you
And I know what you've been up to
So I see right through you
And I know the things you do.
