

Why You Wanna Love Me Now

Lil Eddie

Today I might just ride around
And maybe go a thousand miles
Cause there's no one in my ear,
There's no one in my head
No one waiting in my bed, tonight
Trust I'm like a blue sky dove*
Freefall, I'm a bird in the sky
Take a breath, I almost forget that I'm alive

I sacrifice so we both could build a life
I put it on hold for love I never thought twice
You can't help but ask me why I seem a bit confused
But here's one question for you,
Why you wanna love me

Why you wanna, why (why ya) you wanna,
Why you wanna love me now
Why you wanna, why (why ya) you wanna,
Why you wanna love me now
Do you really want to take a chance
Did ya just want what you can't have
Ohh my heads in the clouds,
Why you wanna love me now
Why you wanna love me now

Yeahh, happy holidays in advance
Kiss your mom, send my love to the fam
When your heart freeze up, turn the fire place on Cause I won't be there keeping you warm
You gotta go through it to understand
This kinda shit is an avalanche
Took a minute to get back up
But now I'm fine

I sacrifice so we both could build a life
I put it on hold for love I never thought twice
You can't help but ask me why I seem a bit confused
But here's one question for you,
Why you wanna love me

Why you wanna, why you wanna,
Why you wanna love me now
Why you wanna, why you wanna,
Why you wanna love me now
Do you really want to take a chance
Did ya just want what you can't have
Ohh my heads in the clouds,
Why you wanna love me now
Why you wanna love me now

Why you wanna, why you wanna,
Why you wanna love me now
Why you wanna, why you wanna,
Why you wanna love me now
Do you really want to take a chance
Did ya just want what you can't have
Ohh my heads in the clouds,

Why you wanna love me now
Why you wanna love me now
