La Parade

Lisa Germano

Another day to live Another way to go Nobody's in this room Nobody's here for now Wake up early I know it's too late To late for the parade Look at my feet Moving slowly I'm afraid it's over Naked A bit sleepy In my single room I open the door Call up call up the lift I wish I was in the parade Sometimes i feel my skin Sometimes i hear a voice "Please try to be friendly" But I'm too old inside I'm so jealous But proud to be An ordinary girl I'd like to talk But you know i hate All ordinary words Naked A bit sleepy In my single room I open the door Call up call up the lift
