

Two Years Too Blue

Lisa Stansfield

Look at all the things we've been through
Look at all that we did and we promised to do
There was me, there was you
Two years too blue

I still feel that magic from this
I still feel that spark
With your touch, with your kiss
So such bliss, and then this
Two years too blue

But now we've got eternity and we can't go wrong
Baby, we can do as we please
Oh, 'cause our electricity could light up this city, baby
Well, charm the birds from the trees

Look at all of the things we've been through
Ooh, now let's do everything that we promised to do
Still there's me, still there's you
It's brand new after two years too blue

Two years too blue, two years, two years too blue
Much too much, too much and too much
Much too much, too much, too much
Much too much, too much and too much

Too blue, too blue
You're here, baby, I'm here, baby
You're here, baby
After two years too blue
