

Tomorrow Never Comes

Lizzy Borden

Live forever the end of never Everywhere and no where
Come tomorrow
Your greedy sorrows disappears
Too much of nothin'
Not enough of somethin'
Dying for something more
Too much to dream for
Just wanna scream
Goodbye before
Tomorrow never comes
We're living for tonight
Tomorrow never comes
We only have tonight
Tomorrow never comes, it never comes
Do you know me?
I'm what you don't see
Unwanted, unwelcome
The dark forbidden
Is where I'm hidden
Your own phantom
Love to Love you
Been thinkin' of you
Nothings is what nothing was
The death of love brings
Your new beginnings
Your own anthem
Tomorrow never comes
We're living for tonight
Tomorrow never comes
Tonight we rule the night
Tomorrow never comes
The kiss of death for life
Tomorrow never comes
Our Love a last goodbye
Tomorrow never comes, it never comes
