

Here We Are

Locnville

Oh, here we are and so here we go, and hold
me in your arms, 'cause oh, we came so far.

I'm one step closer to living the dream and I've been thinking over all the times you listened to me and how could you not know you. After all the times I showed you that it's really just a matter of time. So get up get up get up get up and start living it up it up it up.
'Cause it's never enough enough enough all too soon.
I sit up when I wake up to let light in. Sip up the life to lime the light I'm in. Fill up the time with rhyming lines all for you.

Oh, here we are, and so here we go, and hold
me in your arms, 'cause oh, we came so far.

I wanna go with you. Don't wanna be alone.
Following the chosen few. I wanna see them go.
So tell them if you see them. That I'm up, up and I'm leaving with no time, no need for reason tonight.
'Cause minds are in this season. With lights so bright you can't see them at night. Here we go.

Oh, here we are, and so here we go, and hold me in your arms, '
cause oh, we came so far
