

Love You To Death

London After Midnight

I die when I hear your voice,
To touch you Divine.
Be my possession,
My sweet obsession wine.

I'm dealing in demons love,
It's just a matter of time.
I'll wear you down,
One day you will be mine.

Only I can make your life complete,
Just give yourself to me.
Only I can claim your destiny.

So give me your heart my love,
And give me your soul.
I'd give you mine
But I sold it long ago.

Only I can see inside of you
Just give yourself to me.
And I won't stop until you see the truth.

I love you to death.
I love you completelly,
A love that is purely vain.
And I never meant to hurt you so badly,
I thought you'd enjoy the pain.

I know that you feel it love,
I can tell from your tears.
So don't deny me,
Giving to your fears.

I love you to death.
I love you completelly,
A love that is purely vain.
And I never meant to hurt you so badly,
I thought you'd enjoy the pain.
I love you to death.
