

I've Never Loved Anyone More

Lynn Anderson

Seems that I don't think about you too much
And I'm not too sure why I thought of you now
Time has a way of numbing a touch
But I still recall when you left me

Just how much it hurt me to stand there
Just watching you leave, I couldn't believe it was true
After moments we shared and the souls that we bared
I've never loved anyone more

But like I said, I don't think of you much
There's someone beside me who helps me forget
And he's shown me how not to think of you, now

But when I remember you, I won't regret
That we couldn't hold on to the dreams that we shared
The dreams that were there to believe in

And for all of the pain, I would love you again
I've never loved anyone more
And for all of the pain, I would love you again
I've never loved anyone more
