

The Lights Burned Out

Magnum

The lights burned out
And with it it's taken my eyes
It seems so hard
It's taken me by surprise
And, oh, baby
All that you said must be lies

I cease to feel
The wind and the rain on my face
Sometimes I'm sure
But then I'm confused in my haste
And, oh, baby
I'm standing but taking no space

But I don't cry so easy
No, I don't cry at all
You don't believe me
And I think that's my only downfall

What am I going to do about you, baby?
What am I going to do without you now?
What am I going to do about you, baby?
What am I going to do without you now?
What am I going to do without you now?

You had my love
Wild as an ocean could call
I was the fool
And you were the winner, take all
And, oh, baby
It's so much to me, yet so small
What am I going to do about you, baby?

What am I going to do without you now?
What am I going to do about you, baby?
What am I going to do without you now?
What am I going to do without you now?

What am I going to do about you, baby?
What am I going to do without you now?
What am I going to do about you, baby, baby, baby?
What am I going to do without you now?
Come on and tell me
What am I going to do without you now?
What am I going to do without you now?
