

Ordain The Hierarchy

Malevolent Creation

Disease ridden inhabitants radiate through the rest.
Healing mechanism triggered, genocide of the human pest.
Lives extinguished, disaster encountered, world's repossession,
natural healing process.
Annihilate the living scourge, there is no coincidence.
Cataclysmic result, final stage commencement.
Return to dust, no more flesh.
The fate instilled, sealed with death.
Ordain the hierarchy, proper power is reclaimed.
A world evolved mind of it's own.
Not far from being done.
Dug our own grave, now we must lie in it.
Reach out for reprisal, cannot grip, can never grasp.
Order of man, now threatened existence.
Feeble lives lie shattered, power will disenchant.
