I don't like you Not a little thing about you There's a flower all around you In the rain Images of peace And now your pretty face Things that give me grins In the rain Tropical decision It was a mystical incision Thought you were in prison In the rain As you wander with the kid With a presage and a snip All the way to Memphis In the rain