

You Don't See Me Anymore

Michelle Featherstone

All this wondering makes me tired
This sadness makes me want to sleep
I'm still listening for the footsteps at the door
This foolish heart is killing me

I must be in a speeding car
I must be way off your radar
You don't see me anymore
I must have run right out of you
I'm invisible to you
You don't see me anymore

Don't understand how you can look past all I am
And turn your back on everything we had
You shut your eyes, you want to wait
You changed your mind

I must be in a speeding car
I must be way off your radar
You don't see me anymore
I must have run right out of you
I'm invisible to you
You don't see me anymore

I must be in a speeding car
I must be way off your radar
You don't see me anymore
I must have run right out of you
I'm invisible to you
You don't see me anymore
