Mystic Reptile

Millencolin

You say that most things in life is for free but I doubt you can be so stupid that you never see. I say that you and I will never be the same but you you never listen to what I have to say so take my piece if advice always be nice.

And you always said I'm sorry I wonder why you always felt so sorry.

You always lie and never do talk clean you say that I am such a fake.

I never asked you to ever be with me I hope that you can see what you have changed me to
I'll never smile again
I'll never talk to you
I hope that you can see that I don't want you here that I don't want you

And you never said I'm sorry I wonder why you never say I'm sorry.
