

Your Tears Are Comin'

Montgomery Gentry

I hear you're smiling, been looking good
Nothing but blue skies in your neighborhood
They say you're tickled pink since you left me
And you been talking about me like you never met me

But your tears are coming like a hot Georgia rain
Like a East texas flood, like a Florida Hurricane
You can't just hurt someone and not feel a thing
Those sunny days are numbered
Your tears are coming

I know your girlfriend told ya that I been crying
And I still ain't gotten over your two-timing
Next time you're talking to her about whose the fool
Tell her to tell ya how she got me over you

But your tears are coming like a hot Georgia rain
Like a East texas flood, like a Florida Hurricane
You can't just hurt someone and not feel a thing
Those sunny days are numbered
Your tears are coming

You got my money, the best years of my life
I know you're somewhere laughing loving someone else tonight
The world ain't flat baby in case you're wondering
What goes around comes around, your tears are coming
Your tears are coming, yeah

But your tears are coming like a hot Georgia rain
Like a East texas flood, like a Florida Hurricane
You can't just hurt someone and not feel a thing
Those sunny days are numbered
Your tears are coming

But your tears are coming like a hot Georgia rain
Like a East texas flood, like a Florida Hurricane
You can't just hurt someone and not feel a thing
Those sunny days are numbered
Your tears are coming
Your tears are coming

You let me tell you something
Those sunny days are numbered
I'll be the one you're wanting
Baby, your tears are coming
You let me tell you something
Those sunny days are numbered
I'll be the one you're wanting
Baby, your tears are coming
