

Who Is It Gonna B

Mura Masa

Hey, every day you deny me, love gets stronger
Maybe one day you'll hear me
See the way we're going
Don't you know you confuse me
Don't you know that you're breaking me down
Oh, yeah

Front-line and centre, baby, making you look at me
Tell me, who is it gonna be? (You know)
I'm thinking, should I put down the time?
Can see that you're the cautious kind
And I know that I'm a wildcard more than he
Tell me, who is it gonna be, yeah

Ooh, don't know how you feel
Ooh, tell me how you feel
Ooh, don't know how you feel
Ooh, tell me how you feel

Hey, every step you take backwards, I get closer Inner strength to hold back but
I need guidance and light
Don't you know you could lose me
Don't you know (don't you know)
That you're breaking us down, oh

Front-line and centre, baby, making you look at me
Tell me, who is it gonna be? (You know)
I'm thinking, should I put down the time?
Can see that you're the cautious kind
And I know that I'm a wildcard more than he
Tell me, who is it gonna be, yeah

Ooh, don't know how you feel
Ooh, tell me how you feel
Ooh, don't know how you feel
Ooh, tell me how you feel

Ever since that Christmas Eve when I kissed you
I've been waiting
Think I'm crazy, but I believe that it's special
Sacred maybe

Don't you know you've been breaking me down?
Then you go, you wonder why we're losing ground
Don't you know you've been testing me now?
Let yourself go (serve ghost), just love me (love me)
(Do you love me, do you love me now?)
Or just let me down
Don't you know you've been breaking me down?
Then you go, you wonder why we're losing ground
Don't you know you've been testing me now?
Let yourself go (serve ghost), just love me (love me)
(Do you love me, do you love me now?)
Or just let me down
