MoonChaser

Nekromantix

Slowly creeping through the dark Another victims blood Is on your hands Murder echo's in the path You show no mercy Never give the weak a change Crossing sunset The night is over soon Maybe a piece of luna Will stop the urge to kill The avenue of stars Won't lead the way to the moon But only to the sign of promises Up there on the hill Watch the moon See how it mirrors in the silver lake Don't let the beauty fool you Evil lurks make no mistake

Moonchaser ghetto birds
Are flying by
See angels weep hear them cry
Moonchaser you can run
But you can't hide
There is no escape from the night
Sun shining oh so bright
