Problems

I won't take no lies, hanging out all night The gig is up, enough, it's enough You're wrong, dead wrong, won't take no more Cause I see your game and dumb is not my name

Pack your bags, call you a cab No more laughs Cause I'm not the one that you're gonna play on Move along, sing a song

You give me problems, problems Too many problems Don't want no problems, problems No time to solve them You give me problems, problems Too many problems Don't want no problems, problems No time to solve them

Got love for you, but I can't stand I page you, you won't call What's a 2 way for Strike one, strike two, strike three, no more me Cause I see your game and dumb's not my name

Pack your bags, call you a cab No more laughs Cause I'm not the one that you're gonna play on Move along, sing a song

You give me problems, problems Too many problems Don't want no problems, problems No time to solve them You give me problems, problems Too many problems Don't want no problems, problems No time to solve them

We can do this any way that You want cause I don't care It's no problem and I'm not the one

Pack your bags, call you a cab No more laughs Cause I'm not the one that you're gonna play on Move along, sing a song

You give me problems, problems Too many problems Don't want no problems, problems No time to solve them You give me problems, problems Too many problems Don't want no problems, problems No time to solve them

You give me problems, problems Too many problems Don't want no problems, problems No time to solve them
