

Such A Shame

No Fun At All

I know it's hard to comprehend
Take another look just to see what we defend
Everything has got to fit

Tell me how to set things right
Make it to a pretty sight

Lie, lie cheat and lie you won't be sorry
Confidence gone regain it in a hurry
Lie, lie cheat and lie you won't be sorry
Confidence gone in time

Who's to blame
Who's to blame
All the same

It's hard to tell which way to run
Got to get away cause I hate what I've become
Everyone is just like me
