

Slow Glass

Noah and the Whale

We'll sing love songs about heartbreak and grief Sing it's not just music but the pains not brief
We sing, how your love is like a knife to the back Well I was stabbed and bleeding but still begging for attack

But I was looking through slow, slow glass looking through slow
slow glass

Well I heard you been singing Well I was, what I am Well I never tried to change you, honey I'm your biggest fan and I loved you back then but I don't recognize you now

Yeah in fact we're almost strangers and I don't know how, but I've been looking through slow, slow glass Yeah I've been looking though slow, slow glass
