

Little Boy Could Be a Rolling Stone

Ocean Colour Scene

Throw open the window and call them home
Call 'em all the children, from where they roam
Katie plays with Peter and they turn to stone
Little boy could be a rolling stone
Little boy could be a rolling stone

Mondays child and Tuesdays they know their place
Wednsdays child and Thursdays they went to waste
And all those through the weekend try to (??)
Little boy could be a rolling stone
Little boy could be a rolling stone
