

The Taken

Oceano

Awakened, blinded by lights,
an untraceable vessel illuminates the night.
Mesmerized as it levitates

An unworldly presence invades the mindscape to communicate.
Entranced, your body slips into psychic restraints

Now you elevate to relive relapsed recollections of an abductee,
Dissecting flesh, no scars of entry left

Relive relapsed recollections of an abductee,
Dissecting flesh, no scars of entry left

From your insides, you are tracked, there's nowhere to hide!
A foreign device resides embedded.
Or is it all in your head?

This is your life, a slave to experiments
This is your life and now your captors beckon,
Tracing locations

It is time to elevate again!

You are one of the taken!

A mutilated possession
Internally violated
Mentally numbed

This encounter won't return you.
The true Gods have new purpose for you.
